About Lifetime Recovery

Since 1963, Lifetime Recovery has aided thousands of individuals seeking recovery. Lifetime provides outpatient and residential substance use disorder treatment to men and women. Lifetime's mission is to provide for the care of those with little or no financial resources to access services. No client is turned away strictly for the inability to pay.

Our programs make it possible for children to be returned to mothers, for brothers to reconnect with brothers, for fathers to become fathers again, and for families to be reunited. One day at a time turns into a lifetime, and our community is forever changed for the better.
